DAGGER BRIGADE COMBAT TEAM

The Greatest Brigade Combat Team EVER FORMED!

Colonel J.B. Burton

CSM JOHN FORTUNE

DEPLOYED TO IRAQ FROM SCHWEINFURT, GERMANY

FROM AUG 2006 TO NOV 2007

AS OF 5 JUN 07

Man has two supreme loyalties – to country and to family. . . So long as their families are safe, they will defend their country, believing that by their sacrifice they are safeguarding their families also. But even the bonds of patriotism, discipline and comradeship are loosened when the family itself is threatened.

William Tecumseh Sherman

General, United States Army, 1864

Official 2BCT Message

1600 06 MAY 07

Due to the extension of all Active Component units in Iraq to fifteen month tours, the main body of the Dagger Brigade Combat Team (2BCT/1ID) is projected to return to Germany at the end of October, 2007, followed closely by the trail party in early November, 2007.

This extension of deployed forces provides the Commander on the ground with the capabilities necessary to address the very fluid conditions and developments in Iraq, while helping to establish more predictable future deployment cycles for our Soldiers and Families.

All Dagger BCT Soldiers and Family Members have unique circumstances resulting from this extension. Each case will be handled professionally, carefully and as quickly as possible.

The 1st Armored Division Commanding General will meet with the 2BCT FRG Steering Committee on the morning of Tuesday, May 8, 2007, to discuss the extension.

At 6 PM Tuesday, May 8, 2007, TF Guardian and USAG Schweinfurt leadership, along with representatives from the Department of the Army, will be available at the Schweinfurt Community Forum at the Schweinfurt Elementary School multi-purpose room to answer questions.

Please continue to send any questions or concerns to the TF Guardian leadership at 2bctrumorbuster@eur.army.mil. These questions will be addressed at a deployment update within the next couple weeks.

Specialist Sean K. McDonald

Specialist Sean K. McDonald was born on 25 December 1985 in Rosemount, Minnesota. He graduated from high school before enlisting in the Army on 19 October 2004. He attended Basic Training and Advanced Individual Training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. Specialist McDonald arrived at the 9th Engineer Battalion in Schweinfurt, Germany on 25 February 2005, where he served as a Combat Engineer. In September 2006, he deployed in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom with 2nd Squad, 1st Platoon of Alpha Company. Specialist McDonald served as a member of the 2nd BCT, 1ID's route clearance team, where he served in positions of vehicle operator and gunner.

SPC McDonald was killed by an Improvised Explosive Device while conducting route clearance in Baghdad, Iraq, on 25 March 2007.

He was posthumously awarded the Bronze Star Medal and the Purple Heart Medal. His other awards include the Army Commendation Medal, the Good Conduct Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, the Iraq Campaign Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Service Medal, the Army Service Ribbon, the Overseas Service Ribbon and the Combat Action Badge.

Specialist McDonald is survived by his mother

»Spouse-Day« – ein sorgenfreier Tag

Angehörige von US-Soldaten im Irak-Einsatz waren gerne zu Gast bei der Infanterieschule

Das Größte für jeden Jungen ist es, einmal in oder auf einem Militärfahrzeug mitzufahren – hier in einem „Fuchs". hgs

HAMMELBURG. Einen schönen Tag auf dem Truppenübungsplatz der Saaleck-Kaserne hatten knapp 100 Angehörige von US-amerikanischen Soldaten, die zurzeit im weltweiten Auslandseinsatz sind. Das Ausbildungszentrum der Infanterieschule hatte wieder zum so genannten Spouse-Day eingeladen. Spouse ist das amerikanische Kosewort für die Ehefrau.

Der Patenschaftsgedanke war ausschlaggebend für die Einladung. Handelte es sich doch bei den Amerikanern um die Angehörigen der in Schweinfurt stationierten 2nd Brigade - 1rst Infantry, mit welcher die deutsche Infanterieschule eine Patenschaft pflegt. Nun wurde dies ganz praktisch mit Leben ausgefüllt. Brigadegeneral Johann Berger begrüßte die Gäste und stellte seine Dienststelle vor.

Den größten Spaß hatten die Kinder. Das Ostereiersuchen habe ihm gut gefallen, meinte der dreijährige Leander. Dessen sechsjährige Schwester fand das Balkenspiel am schönsten. Da musste man mit Geschicklichkeit und viel Nachdenken ein Hindernis mit Hilfe von zwei Rollbalken und zwei Brettern überwinden. Weitere Aufgaben waren es, mit einem Seil und viel Balance eine Kiste über einem abenteuerlichen Weg zu befördern oder Hölzer und Autoreifem in ein Gleichgewicht zu bringen. Dies alles waren Stationen, die zur Lehrtrainingsanlage für die Ausbildung der Infanterie gehören.

Das schöne Wetter war im Bunde mit dem Spouse-Day. Die Sonne schien sogar so kräftig, dass die Gäste gern im Schatten unter dem Freidach Platz nahmen. Es gab Speis' und Trank. Manche Mütter hatten ihre Babys dabei und baten die deutschen Soldaten um Erwärmung der Milchfläschen. Der militärische Babynahrungs-Wärmservice funktionierte prompt.

Ursprünglich kämen sie aus Texas, erzählte eine nette Familie, deren Namen aus sicherheitstechnischen Gründen nicht genannt wird. Da der Vater gerade auf Urlaub von seinem Einsatz war, kam er gerne mit zum Spouse-Day. Seit 2004 sei er in der oben genannten Brigade stationiert. Zu den Deutschen habe man seit Beginn guten freundschaftlichen Kontakt. Ganz bewusst hätten sie sich deshalb eine deutsche Mietwohnung genommen und ihre Kinder in den deutschen Kindergarten geschickt. Dass sie jetzt der Einladung der Infanterieschule folgten, war also ganz in ihrem Sinne. Gern würden sie im kommenden Jahr wieder zur Stelle sein.

Faszination

Fasziniert waren die Erwachsenen über die Geschichte von Bonnland. Manche kannten schon der Bonnlandfest. Jetzt gab es die Fahrt durch das Übungsdorf. Gut fanden sie es, dass die Beschäftigungsmöglichkeiten für ihre Kids in drei altersgerechte Gruppen aufgeteilt waren. Die Kinder durften sich in den Transportpanzer Fuchs oder in ein gepanzertes Dingo setzen und genossen die Platzrunde in diesen Militärfahrzeugen. Andere versuchten, in einem dunklen Labyrinth zurecht zu kommen.

Weiterhin standen Torwandschießen, Dosen- und Ringewerfen, Luftballon-Dart sowie Fischeangeln auf dem Programm. „Die Kids haben ihren Spaß und wir Mütter können einmal total abschalten", freute man sich. Denn stets seien die Gedanken bei ihren Männern, um die man sich während der Auslandseinsätze große Sorgen mache. hgs

Auch diese amerikanische Familie genoss den Spouse-Day. Links Michael Cormier, der amerikanische Verbindungsoffizier, und rechts Medienstabsoffizier Major Olaf Kuske von der Infanterieschule. hgs/Fotos: Schaar (2)
